

1-27-82

John (Jack) Stange

Funeral services for John (Jack) Stange, 82, of Duluth, Minn., formerly of Groton, were held on Saturday, Jan. 23, at 11 a.m., at Miller-Huebl Funeral Home in Aberdeen, with the Rev. Monte W. Gusewelle of St. John's Lutheran Church of Groton officiating.

Burial was at Riverside Cemetery in Aberdeen. Mr. Stange died at St. Mary's Hospital in Duluth, Minn., on Wednesday, Jan. 20.

The family prefers memorials to St. John's Lutheran Church in Groton.

John (Jack) Stange was born near Ferney on May 17, 1899 to Henry and Augusta Schley Stange. This is the area where he attended school and grew up. He farmed with his parents as a young man. He was married to Sophia Saul at Aberdeen. They made their home and farmed in the Stratford area. They moved to the Minneapolis area where Mr. Stange worked for Northern Pump Co. They then returned to South Dakota and farmed in the Stratford area. They then moved to Aberdeen and Mrs. Stange died. He then married Dorothy Nordeen at Groton and they made their home in Minneapolis, Minn., before moving to Duluth, Minn., where they resided for the past 10 years. He was a member of Calvary Lutheran Church in Golden Valley, Minn.

The organist was Mrs. Arliss Alberts and the soloist was Diane Weishaar. The casketbearers were Emil Rose, Ralph Karnopp, Walde-mar Lenling, all of Groton; Robert Stange, Columbia; Clifford Ott and Francis Lorenz of Huron.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy Stange of Duluth, Minn.; two sons, David A. Nordeen of Necedah, Wis.; Danial N. Nordeen of Montrose, Colo.; one daughter, Mrs. Richard (Judy) Miles, Caledonia, Minn.; three brothers, Leonard Stange of Carmichael, Calif.; Hubert Stange of Redfield; Reuben Stange of Rockford, Ill.; four sisters, Mrs. Frieda Ott of Huron; Mrs. Amanda Lorenz of Groton; Mrs. Gertrude Ott of Love's Park, Ill.; Mrs. Kermit (Lau-cinda) Baker, Oceanside, Calif., 10 grandchildren and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Louise Stange of Aberdeen.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his first and second wife, three brothers and one sister.